6. Sign in to ArcGIS Pro by using the 'ArcGIS organization's URL'.

The image shows the 'ArcGIS Sign In' dialog box. At the top, it says 'ArcGIS Pro wants to access your ArcGIS Online account information'. Below this is the 'Sign in' section with the Esri logo. There is an 'ArcGIS login' dropdown menu. Below it are fields for 'Username' and 'Password'. A 'Show' button is next to the password field. There are 'Sign In' and 'Cancel' buttons. Below these are links for 'Forgot username?' and 'Forgot password?'. At the bottom of the login section is a field for 'Your ArcGIS organization's URL'. A red arrow points to this field. Below the URL field are four social media icons: GitHub, Facebook, Google, and LinkedIn. At the very bottom of the dialog are three links: 'Sign in automatically' (checked), 'Configure Licensing', and 'Sign In Using Browser'.

7. Type 'unsw-au' as your organization URL then continue to sign in with your UNSW SSO credentials.

The image shows the 'ArcGIS Sign In' dialog box with the 'Your ArcGIS organization's URL' field filled with 'unsw-au'. The field is followed by '.maps.arcgis.com'. There is a 'Remember this URL' checkbox which is checked. A 'Continue' button is to the right of the URL field. Below the URL field are the same four social media icons as in the previous image. At the bottom of the dialog are the same three links: 'Sign in automatically' (checked), 'Configure Licensing', and 'Sign In Using Browser'.

8. ArcGIS Professional will now be licensed for use.
