MSI, UNSW Acknowledgement / Citation Agreement Users of the MSI, UNSW agrees to the following conditions:

If publications or presentations should arise from work carried out either in part, or in their entirety, within the MSI, adequate acknowledgment should be given.

In some circumstances members of the MSI may contribute to your work far in excess of basic training and guidance in method developments, operating instruments and data analysis. In such cases it is deemed courteous to give them a personal acknowledgment in the manuscript. In cases where they have contributed significant intellectual input, like all academics and Senior research officers, this should be reflected in the list of authors.
