Preliminary Assessment for Undergraduate Admission to UNSW Canberra

Current Serving Members of the Australian Defence Force

UNSW Canberra offers undergraduate programs in Arts, Business, Computing and Cyber Security, Engineering, Science, and Technology to current serving members of the Australian Defence Force.

Students must:

1. Be recommended and approved by the Australian Defence Force Services (Navy, Army or Airforce) to study at UNSW Canberra
2. Have met the minimum tertiary entrance rank (TER) requirements for UNSW Canberra.

Instructions

To have your entrance rank determined, you must complete this Preliminary Assessment form and submit it via the Non Current Students Enquiry Web Portal.

Supporting Documents

Alongside this form, submit copies of any formal academic qualifications that you may have including previous secondary, tertiary (TAFE, or University) or Australian Qualifications Framework (AQF) accredited awards.

Please note that awards received from your service are not assessable unless they have been given Civilian Accreditation.

What's Next?

Applicants for the Bachelor of Arts and Business will be assessed on education qualifications for admission purposes and will receive written advice on the outcome of your assessment.

Navy and Airforce applicants for a Bachelor of Computing and Cyber Security, Engineering, Technology or Science will be assessed on both educational qualifications and required to complete a Maths skills check to determine levels of assumed subject knowledge. Upon completion of the Maths skills check applicants will then receive written advice on the outcome of your assessment. The outcome for Navy applicants will also be sent to Navy Education. The outcome for Airforce applicants will be sent to Airforce Career Development & Competitive Selections.
